CENTENNIAL DEMOCRATS.

The "Faithful" to Have a Day at the Centennial Exposition.

An Afternoon Parade to be Held. With Out-pouring of Clubs-Senator Thurman and Others to be Present--October 25th The Date.

Democratic Day at the Centennial Exposition of the Ohio Valley and Cen-States will from all appearances not only be the greatest of the Exposition, only be the greatest of the Exposition, but a gala-day in the history of the Democratic party. Thursday, Oct. 25, but two days before the close of the great show, has been set uside by the Commissioners as the date on which the followers of Cleveland and Thurman can meet and rejoice.

The Committee of prominent Demo-erats of Cincinnati in charge of the affair extend the cheerful assurance that if the present favorable outlook is real-ized upon, over a hundred thousand enized upon, over a hundred thousand enthusiastic Democrats will march the Allen G. It will be a time when the apostles of the faith of Thomas Jefferson from half a dozen States can meet and extend fraternal greeting. Democrats of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Illinois, West Virginia and Tennessee will be there in platoons, companies, regiments and cohorts.

A grand daylight parade by clubs of all the States will be given, and the procession will pass into the Exposition grounds, by the electric fountain and through the far-famed Music Hall and
